Upcoming Events

Jan 30 - Feb 28, 2005 - Doug Goodell, a member of Ridgewood Camera Club, will be doing a slide presentation "Jungle of the Maya" and a photo exhibit at Weiner Library, Fairleigh Dickinson University - located at 980 River Road, Teaneck, NJ.

The one- hour slide show starts at 2:00 p.m. Sunday, January 30, 2005. Exhibit starts on the same day and runs through Feb. 28. The slide show and exhibit are free, but a donation of $5.00 or more is encouraged to continue bringing shows of this quality.

Feb 6 - May 15, 2005 - Edward Weston: A Legacy Photographic Masterworks on View at Montclair Art Museum. Weston (1886-1958) was renowned as one of the masters of 20th - century photography. His legacy includes several thousand printed photographs that have influenced photographers around the world for 60 years. For more info, contact the Communications Department at (973) 746-5555, ext. 234; to request images, ext. 218. Admission: $5 member child, $7 non-member child, adults pay regular Museum admission.

April 17 - Gil Lopez-Espina, one of the most recognized individuals in photography, will be presenting several programs at the Old Bethpage Restoration Village Auditorium. Tickets are $20 and must be purchased in advance. Call Dennis Golin at 718-479-0643 for more info.

Digital Exhibition - To learn more about digital exhibitions, you can order 7 computer programs from Nick Muskovac, APSA, PPSA. The programs are free. However, a nominal fee to cover the CD duplication and shipping costs is requested. Muskovac can be reached at nmuskov1@tampabay.rr.com. See January 2004 article in the PSA Journal for more details.

New Jersey Federation Citations - Citations will be presented at the Federation Convention in November. This is the highest commendation that can be bestowed on those who have advanced photography in New Jersey through their demonstrated proficiency and widespread service to other individuals and clubs. Deadline for submissions is Sept. 15, 2005. Copies of the application are available under the "NJ Citation" tab of the website "www.njfcc.org".
